INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

Board of Trustees Hancock County Convention and Visitors Bureau Findlay, Ohio

We have performed the procedures enumerated below, to which the management of the Hancock County Convention and Visitors Bureau (the Bureau) agreed, solely to assist the Bureau in evaluating whether it recorded all lodging taxes it received from Hancock County, and to help evaluate whether the Bureau disbursed these lodging taxes for allowable purposes described below for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. The Bureau is responsible for disbursing lodging taxes for allowable purposes. We followed the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' attestation standards for agreed-upon procedures engagements and applicable attestation engagement standards included in the Comptroller General of the United States' Government Auditing Standards. The sufficiency of the procedures is solely the responsibility of the Bureau. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

Cash Receipts

1. We confirmed with Hancock County the lodging taxes it paid to the Bureau during the years ending December 31, 2009 and 2008. The County confirmed the following amounts:

Year Ended	Amount
December 31, 2009	$336,629
December 31, 2008	$383,926

2. We compared the amounts from step 1. to amounts recorded as lodging tax receipts on the Bureau's general ledger. We found no exceptions.

Cash Disbursements

1. We inquired of management regarding sources describing allowable purposes or restrictions related to the Bureau's disbursements of lodging taxes. We listed these sources and summarized significant related restrictions below:

Source of Restrictions

- a. The Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Articles of Incorporation
- b. The Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's 501(c)(6) Tax Exemption

- c. The 2004 agreement and 2009 amendment between The Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Hancock County per resolution #773-08 and #1988-336 and 337.
- d. Ohio Rev. Code Section 5739.09(A)(2)
- e. Auditor of State Bulletin 2003-005
- f. The Bureau's Co-Op Advertising Program

The Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's tax exemption prohibits it from making disbursements supporting a candidate's election.

Ohio Rev. Code Section 5739.09(A)(2) restricts the Bureau to spending lodging tax "specifically for promotion, advertising, and marketing of the region in which the county is located ."

Auditor of State Bulletin 2003-005 deems any disbursement of public funds (e.g. lodging taxes) for alcohol to be improper.

The 2004 Bureau's agreement and 2009 amendment between The Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Hancock County permits the Bureau to spend lodging taxes only for the benefit of Hancock County and the City of Findlay, its citizens, and the business community thereof, by promoting and publicizing Hancock County and the City of Findlay, in order to bring the patronage of business and tourism and cultural, educational, religious, professional, and sports organizations into the County.

The Bureau's Co-Op Advertising Program sets procedures for organizations applying for advertising funds and annual caps and limitations on co-op matched advertising per event.

2. We selected all disbursements of lodging taxes exceeding $1,000 from the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, and compared the purpose for these disbursements as documented on vendor invoices or other supporting documentation to the sources of restrictions listed in Cash Disbursements Step 1. above. We found no instances where the purpose described on the invoice or other supporting documentation described a violation the restrictions listed above.

We were not engaged to, and did not examine the Bureau's lodging tax receipts and disbursements for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the objective of which would have been to opine on lodging tax receipts and disbursements. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that we would have reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Bureau and is not intended to be, and should not be used by anyone else.
